Tuesday, August 20. 1717.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Aug. 24.

Centa in Africa, July 14.

THE Moors who have held this Place so long besieged, finding themselves very much incommoded by two new advanc'd Redoubts, which the Garrison had built, and planted four Field-Pieces upon each, with which they made continual Fire upon them in Flank, and kill'd Abundance of their Men; in the Night of the 9th 10th attack'd those Redoubts with a great Number of Troops, but were vigorously repuls'd and lost a great many of their Men. They return'd two Hours after, but had no better Success, having been again repuls'd with great Loss. They nevertheless return'd the third time at 4 the next Morning with 9000 Men and 8 Pieces of Cannon, and attack'd the Redoubts with a terrible Fire of their Artillery, whereby the Defences of them were quite ruin'd, so that after four Attacks, the Troops who defended, foreseeing that they should be oblig'd to abandon the Redoubts, sent back their Cannon into the Town, and having kept their Ground till six o' Clock, they retired by a subterraneous Passage; leaving Matches lighted in the Mines that were in those Redoubts. The Moors perceiving the Place abandon'd, enter'd about 8, to lodge themselves there; but soon after the Mines sprung, and blew up into the Air the Redoubts and the Men that were upon them, to the Number of above 800. Notwithstanding this Loss, the Moors were beginning to re-fortify those Posts; but the Governor of the Town made a Detachment of Grenadiers, who approaching without being discover'd, enter'd their little Camp with Bayonets in the Muzzles of their Muskets, and made a terrible Slaughter of the Moors, who fled with great Confusion and retir'd into their Lines. And we have since heard, that the Moors lost near 4000 Men in all these Actions, whereas on our Part there were but 23 killed and Wounded.

Hague, Aug. 24. Letters from Brussels of the 12th Instant say, that some Days before, divers Members of the Council of Finances, discours'd with the Marquis de Prié upon redressing their Grievances, and one of them urged very much, that considerable Sums of Money might be rais'd in a short time upon the publick Credit simply, so that without even going out of the Province of Brabant, five or six Millions may be had at three per Cent. Interest, with which, as he said, they might at once discharge the respective Mortgages upon the Revenues of Port St. Mary, and others, and thereby ease his Imperial and Catholick Majesty of the burdensome Interest which he now pays, and which, as it is manag'd, amounts to 12 per Cent. Which Proposition was accepted by the Marquis de Prié, in Order to be sent to the Court of Vienna. The same Letters add, that the Counsellour Wynant was going to Vienna, to be there employ'd in the Council for the Affairs of the Austrian Netherlands. Which Council divides itself into several Classes, according to the Affairs to be debated, which are chiefly reducible to these 5 Points. 1. The Laws and Privileges of the Netherlands. 2. Their Treaties of Peace and Alliance with the neighbouring Potentates. 3. What concerns the Increase of the Domaines and Finances. 4. What relates to Trade. And, 5. The Disposal of Places and Employments of the first Rank. But in all these Points, this Council is no more than consultive; and it belongs to the Governour General and the Councils and Colleges dependent on him, to direct the current Affairs. 'Twas reported at Brussels, that the Chiefs of the Swiss Troops that are in Garrison in the Places of the Frontier, whose Companies are in Danger of being disbanded, if they are not already so, have desir'd of the Marquis de Prié, free Passage, thro' the Austrian Netherlands, to go to serve the Emperour in Hungary. The Conferences concerning the Barrier in Flanders and Brabant continue daily.

The Memorial which Mr. Whitworth the Minister of his Britannick Majesty here, has presented to the States General, imports very strong Terms against the Release of Baron Gortz, and that his Britannick Majesty insists that the said Baron be transported in the same Frigate with Count Gyllemburg, and in default thereof, neither his said Majesty nor the King of Denmark, will give any Passport for his safe Conduct.

Some People here pretend to say, that the Peace of the North is now very seriously treated on at Amsterdam; that many Difficulties have been remov'd to the Content of all Parties; and that the Plan of the Preliminaries is formed and very near adjust'd.

We have News from the Coast of Malabar in the East-Indies, that the Blacks and the Company's Army had come to a Battle; but that the latter had been forc'd to leave the Field to the former, altho' the Loss on both Sides was near equal.

From the Amst. Courant, dated Aug. 24.

Brussels, Aug. 19. We hear from Mardyke, that the Demolition of the Sluices of that Port advances with so great Diligence, that they will soon be able to destroy the Foundations. Eight hundred Men are employ'd in it every Day, Sundays not excepted.

Hague, Aug. 22. Since the Arrival of M. Pestera here, 'tis hop'd the Differences between his Imperial Majesty and this State, upon the Subject of the Barrier Treaty, will soon be terminated to the mutual Satisfaction of both Parties. And 'tis said that Minister is to depart very suddenly, to return to Brussels, to put the last Hand to it. The States of Holland and West-Friesland separated two Days ago, till next Month.

Amsterdam, August 22. Their Czarish Majesties went from hence last Tuesday, to take a Tour to Utrecht; and are expected back next Week.

From the Dublin Gazette.

Dublin, Aug. 10. On Wednesday last, in the Evening, his Grace the Duke of Bolton landed at Ringsend, was met by a Salvo of Cannon placed there, and on Lazie-hill, and was complimented by the Lord Mayor, Recorder, Court of Aldermen, and Common Council; from thence proceeded to the Castle, attended by the Troops of Horse on Duty, State-Trumpets, Kettle Drums, and a great Number of Coaches with Nobility and Gentry; the Streets being lin'd with the Army, and Militia, Horse and Foot. At their Arrival in the Castle, his Grace went directly to the Council-Chamber, where He was sworn Lord-Lieutenant of this Kingdom, and then the great Guns at the Barracks were fired three Rounds, and was answer'd by the like Volleys from the Regiments on Duty there; and the Evening concluded with ringing of Bells, Bonfires, and all other Demonstrations of Joy. This Day the Provost, Fellows, and the rest of the College of the Holy Trinity, went in Order to compliment his Grace upon his safe Arrival.
